The revision of 1852, as only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which fiood statutes to find any particular enactment. Happily for the cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, profession, the publication under consideration promises a better state of things in the future. The first volume of Messrs. Gavin & Hord's work contains an excellent and copious index, which to every practicing lawyer in the tate is itself worth the money which the volume costs. The volume under review contains another excellence All its pages are supplied with valuable marginal indices, so that a glance at the margin is sufficient to apprise the eader of the contents of the page.

Another matter of great importance to the lawyer in this volume is a good collection of the subjects of all legislation since 1851. Heretofore, the lawyer in examining our legislation on any given subject had first to find what was relevant to it in the Revision of 1852, and then to turn over the pages of the volumes of subsequent Statutes, to see how far recent legislation may have repealed or mod'fied the provisions contained in that Revision, and even then he would often feel doubt whether he had found all the legislation on the subject of his inquiry. Messrs. Gavin and Hord have relieved us of all this trouble and Price $1 per Bottle; Six Bottles for $5.

doubt. They have collected together in consecutive pages all the statutes made since 1851, on the same subject.
Thus, on pages 373 to 377 of their first volume they have collected all our legislation, now in force, on the subject o husband and wife, including the act of 1852 and three act of 1857. And they have followed the same mode o coocation, in appropriate consecutive pages, in regard to all other topics of legislation. every variety of Throat and Lung Complaints, ' A still more valuable feature are the copious and aceuthat it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount rate notes contained in the volume in question. This volume includes the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of Indiana, and several important acts of Virginia and statutes of Congress, and a large portion o our own statutes now in force. The numerous decisions o the than assure the people its quality is kept up to Courts on the various provisions contained in these Constis tutions and statutes are found at the bottom of the appro-priate pages, in the form of neat, brief and accurate noteand references. Messrs. Gavin & Hord seem to have performed this part of their work exceedingly well. It must have cost them much care and labor. By it they have greatly lessened the labor of the practising lawyer, and have well merited his grateful approval.

In every respect the volume underreview is highly reditable to the dilligence, accuracy, talents and the taste its editors, as well as to the mechanical skill and neatnes of its publishers, and it must raise the just expectation of the profession, as to the value of the second volume, which we understand will be forthcoming in a few months, and which will contain the code of pleading and practice o Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetter, Tumors and 1852, with subsequent amendments and other statutes. These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to belive produced a very happy result; two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not

Office of the Jeffersonian, Phillippi, Va., Dec. 12, '58. Dear Sir:-I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstances, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this piace, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth, so much so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and he is very well known in our ad-

Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir-Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test. During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the road side, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effect of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappear-

I recommended it to others who had diseases of the head, and in all cases it had the desired effect. You can

The New York Day Book says:
"The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics,
Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show window cards and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water, their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. HOG'S LARD, WHALE OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and white flint glass bottles, the costlest character of tonics; and when thus costly are baptized with some trisyllable term, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentlemen comes before the world with. out any "highfalutin" Xilophioforium, or any other as-tounding or startling catchpenny terms; he simply ad-vertises a Hair Restorative—what it expresses, precisely-and as a Restorative it acts.
